WHEN SHOULD I APPLY FOR MY LOAN?

You can submit an application & become pre-qualified as early as 90 days before your program. Pre-qualification allows you to preview your rates & loan options. Before accepting a loan option, please ensure you have enrolled at your school.

WILL I QUALIFY FOR AN ASCENT LOAN?

Qualification depends on credit profile. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, permanent residents, or DACA recipients with established credit history & no outstanding education loan defaults. U.S. temporary residents may apply with a creditworthy cosigner that is a U.S. citizen or U.S. permanent resident. Any applicant can add a cosigner, which can help strengthen an application. Minimum credit requirements may vary by school & loan term. Loan amount, income details, and employment status are not considered in an approval / denial decision.

To see if you pre-qualify for an Ascent loan, submit an application. In the pre-qualification process, we'll conduct a soft credit check with no impact to your credit score. In addition to learning more about your eligibility, you can also see the rates & terms you pre-qualify for.

ARE ASCENT BOOTCAMP LOANS THE SAME AS PRIVATE STUDENT LOANS?

No, bootcamp loans are consumer loans to help pay for tuition or cost of living at our partner bootcamp schools. There are several key differences, and we encourage students to perform their own research. Some of the high-level differences include:

- Private student loans may typically only be used for qualified education expenses as defined by the IRS.
- For private student loans, interest paid may be tax deductible. For consumer loans for bootcamps, interest is not tax deductible.
- Consumer loans for bootcamps may be treated differently in the event of a borrower bankruptcy.
